

Please delay Monday's media consolidation rule change and allow real public debate on this issue. I do not believe that allowing the larger media companies to own multiple media outlets within regions and across the US serves any community's interest. It stifles competition and the ability to serve local interests. Rushing on to judgement on this issue without truly soliciting public opinion (not just corporate opinion) is a disservice to the public which you are supposed to serve. Thank you.